

GERMAN A1 – Group 1

Friday (9.00 hours– 12.20 hours) - 4 SWS per week

Lecturer: Mrs. Schimanski

Start: 40th week of 2025 End: 6th week of 2026

Exam: In the 6th week of 2026

Requirements: None

Place: In the 39th week, you will receive this information via Mail after your enrolment in SharePoint.

Registration: A registration is possible for incomings from 08.09.2025 until 21.09.2025 under

<https://share.hs-duesseldorf.de/anmeldungen/zwek/sprachen/start.aspx>

Goals and contents

Aim: In accordance with the European Framework of Reference, participants in the basic course should reach level A1.

Grammatical topics

- Present tense
- nominative / accusative / dative: (in)definite article, pronoun, negative article, possessive article
- Separable verbs
- Verbs with vowel change
- Questions
- Plural Education
- Prepositions
- Imperative
- Modal verbs
- Past of having and being
- Perfect

Content issues

Welcome / Farewell - Introducing yourself (origin, hobbies, family, ...)- numbers, time, dates - daily schedule - everyday objects - food and drink, shopping - living and city- health- travel- feelings/desires

Language skills

In class, you practise all the speaking skills of the language (listening, speaking, reading, writing). The emphasis is on communication.

Moodle

Kurs: Deutsch als Fremdsprache A1 | HSD \(hs-duesseldorf.de\)

Your work in moodle (80 %) will be evaluated and it is a part of the final grade. Moodle keys: Ms Schimanski will give you all necessary information and details about its use.

Exam

The course ends with a written final exam in the last week of lectures and an oral exam. The active participation is also a part of the final grade.

Materials needed

Course book: Motive A1, Hueber Verlag, ISBN No. 978-3-19-001880-2 and

Workbook: Motive A1, Hueber Verlag ISBN978-3-19-031880-3